Standard II: Student Learning Programs and Support Services
March 24, 2016 — 11:15 am—12:30 pm — HSS 301

Chairs: Mary Colavito and Mike Tuitasi

The institution offers instructional programs, library and learning support services, and student support services aligned with its mission. The institution's programs are conducted at levels of quality and rigor appropriate for higher education. The institution assesses its educational quality through methods accepted in higher education, makes the results of its assessments available to the public, and uses the results to improve educational quality and institutional effectiveness. The institution defines and incorporates into all of its degree programs a substantial component of general education designed to ensure breadth of knowledge and to promote intellectual inquiry. The provisions of this standard are broadly applicable to all instructional programs and student and learning support services offered in the name of the institution.

A. Instructional Programs — Jamey Anderson and Jenny Merlic

B. Library and Learning Support Services — Trish Burson and Denise Kinsella

C. Student Support Services — Jose Cue and Brenda Benson
