The Pico Promise Program (PPP) is a joint partnership between Santa Monica College and the City of Santa Monica. Pico Promise is designed to meet the needs of the underserved, under-represented youth living in close proximity to the College. The program assists and motivates young residents of the Pico neighborhood to pursue postsecondary activities leading to degrees, certificates, transfer to a 4-year university, and/or employment.

Who can apply?

You are eligible for the Pico Promise Program if you:

- Are 17-24 years old
- Graduated from Santa Monica High School or Olympic High School
- Must have placed into pre-college Math or English
- Have financial need as verified by FAFSA
- Complete a PPP application

What does the program offer?

- Academic, career, and wellness counseling
- Assistance with enrollment and priority registration
- Assistance with FAFSA and scholarship search
- Textbook vouchers

How can I apply?

1. You must attend an Information Session, please call (310) 434-4926 to schedule.
