

All tutoring services are being conducted in distance learning environments. There is no on-ground tutoring during the COVID-19 pandemic. But we remain committed to assisting students develop the skills and confidence needed to succeed in their coursework and in their academic, professional, and personal pursuits.

Meeting With A Tutor

- To schedule an appointment, click on the correct tutoring center in the navigation bar on the left side of this page and follow the instructions for the center you have chosen. Note that each center conducts tutoring sessions differently and has different hours, so make sure to follow scheduling directions for the specific subject and center you have chosen.
- Tutoring is offered free of charge for currently registered students and it is available for most courses.
- Make sure you check this webpage frequently to verify that you have the most accurate and updated hours.
- If you need assistance in a course that is not listed on our schedule, please speak with the Tutoring Coordinator in the related Tutoring Center.
- Start meeting with a tutor early! Although students can meet with a tutor at any time in the semester, tutoring is most effective if you begin early. Don't wait until you develop significant problems.
