

Sample faculty feedback for standalone instruction (class-specific orientations)

–

From: CHEKROUN JULIE
Sent: Thursday, November 5, 2020 8:51 AM
To: JUNGHAHN LISA
Subject: Re: Library Orientation for Comst. 21 on Nov. 11

Hi Lisa,

Thank you for sending this over! I absolutely love your energy 😊 I remember bringing my students to one of your on-ground orientations and how much they loved your engaging style!

Stay safe & sane!

Best regards,

Julie Chekroun (She/Her/Hers)

*Assistant Professor Department of Communication Studies
Santa Monica College
1900 Pico Blvd
Santa Monica, CA 90405*

-

From: ROPER-CONLEY_CAROLYN <ROPER-CONLEY_CAROLYN@smc.edu>
Sent: Saturday, July 11, 2020 2:16:50 PM
To: ROMERO_ALBERT <ROMERO_ALBERT@smc.edu>
Subject: Re: Business Orientation Recording - July 9, 2020 12:30-1:30pm

Hi Albert...apologies sending this reply late. I've passed on the Zoom link for my class.

On behalf of my Business I summer class and I, thank you so very much for your help in introducing the "links" within the library. Students commented that you helped them in making them aware of the resources there at the library. I want them to look to resources available for them at SMC. All too often too much reliance on basic internet. My push in classes I teach is to always explain to students or have an idea of "WHY" is something(s). And that fact checking should be forever part of their mode of operation. This is expected of college grads when working in the workforce. And that this is a major difference between "on the job training" and college grads.

Again thank you and I'll be in touch...Carolyn

-
From: ONUGHA_ERICA <ONUGHA_ERICA@smc.edu>
Sent: Tuesday, November 9, 2021 3:59 PM
To: ROBINSON_MICHELE <Robinson_Michele@smc.edu>
Subject: Re: Library 1 orientation zoom link

Thanks again for a wonderful presentation. The students were so happy and I learned a lot too. It's amazing how much things can change in a year.

Erica Onugha, PhD
English Department
Pronouns: she, her, hers

-
From: GARCIA_MARIO <GARCIA_MARIO@smc.edu>
Sent: Monday, May 11, 2020 6:13 PM
To: BAUTISTA_CYNTHIA <BAUTISTA_CYNTHIA@smc.edu>
Subject: Re: Library Orientation

Dear Cynthia,
Thank you very much for your presentation today. I found it easy to follow yet thorough, with a wonderful, friendly feeling to it. I learned from you.
My feeling is that, these days, every venture into the unknown is an act of courage. You certainly stepped up, and you have my profound gratitude.
I look forward to working with you again soon!
Mario
(English faculty member)

-
From: HARVEY_LYNN <HARVEY_LYNN@smc.edu>
Sent: Tuesday, December 7, 2021 7:53 PM
To: ANTRIM_BRENDA <ANTRIM_BRENDA@smc.edu>
Subject: Re: ANTRIM_BRENDA shared "ESL 915 Orientation Fall 2021" with you.

Hi Bren,
Thank you so much for your magnificent presentation in my ESL class today! Now the students have new tools to help them do their research reports, and it's great that even the ones who couldn't join us due to the Canvas glitches will still be able to access your information by watching the video later.

Even with all the technical challenges, you made the most of every minute, giving us great useful information and answering all our questions.

What a great class!
Very much appreciated,
Lynn

Lynn Harvey
ESL Instructor
Santa Monica College
harvey_lynn@smc.edu
Pronouns: she, her, hers