

Trauma-Informed Training Workshops

Guest Presenter

Deborah Schleicher,
Community and Campus
Outreach Coordinator

UCLA Medical Center, Santa Monica
The Rape Treatment Center

The training will cover:

- ◇ Recognizing and understanding impacts of trauma
- ◇ Definitions and concepts applicable to helping trauma-affected people
- ◇ Building a trauma-informed framework to effectively support and assist survivors
- ◇ Avoiding re-traumatization
- ◇ Symptoms of secondary trauma

Workshop 1: Introduction Tuesday February 9, 2021 1 pm to 3 pm

This workshop is for faculty and staff interested in learning how to apply a “trauma-informed” framework when responding to survivors, including actively seeking to decrease re-traumatization with students and colleagues and prevent secondary trauma.

BEYOND SEX TOOLBOX SERIES

Santa Monica College Spring 2021

SMC is committed to empowering all students to take action to eliminate discrimination, harassment, and abuse. Any form of sexual violence, harassment, or physical abuse occurring against an SMC student, on SMC property, or at an SMC event or activity is a VIOLATION of District policies and regulations.

Unlawful discrimination is conduct that denies or limits a person's full and equal access to participate in, or benefit from education and/or employment programs, services, or activities. Sexual harassment or misconduct is a form of sex discrimination and is also unlawful under Title IX federal regulations.
