AR 7211 FACULTY SERVICE AREAS, MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS, AND EQUIVALENCIES

Equivalency Process for Full-Time Faculty Positions

1. Announcements for full-time faculty positions shall include as required qualifications that the candidate must possess one of the following:
 - Qualifications that are at least equivalent to the minimum qualifications determined by the Board of Governors, or
 - An appropriate valid California Community College Credential.

Announcements shall also contain a statement encouraging potential applicants who believe they possess qualifications at least equivalent to the minimum qualifications determined by the Board of Governors to apply.

2. The screening committee shall review all applications, transcripts, and other materials submitted by candidates for the position to determine that each candidate selected for a committee interview has met the minimum qualifications for hire in that discipline or possesses an appropriate valid credential.
3. In determining equivalency, the screening committee shall use the Guidelines for Determining Equivalency to Minimum Qualifications for Faculty Positions (below) in reviewing evidence submitted by the applicant to decide whether or not the candidate possesses qualifications at least equivalent to the minimum qualifications for the discipline.
4. If a candidate selected for a final interview with the Superintendent/President has qualified for the position through the equivalency process, the screening committee shall certify the equivalency by preparing a detailed statement describing the basis for the equivalency and the evidence that was used in making this determination. The Office of Human Resources shall verify the equivalency information. This statement shall be forwarded to the Superintendent/President before the final interview.

Equivalency Process in Reassignment

1. Faculty members being considered for reassignment to a discipline other than that for which they were originally hired and academic (instructional or student services) administrators being considered for reassignment to faculty status must:
 - possess an appropriate valid credential or
 - meet the minimum qualifications for the discipline(s) of the proposed new assignment or
 - be certified by a majority vote of the full-time faculty members in the department(s) affected by the new assignment as possessing qualifications at least equivalent to the minimum qualifications for the discipline(s) of the new assignment according to the Guidelines for Determining Equivalency to Minimum Qualifications for Faculty Positions (below).

2. A detailed statement describing the basis for the equivalency and supporting documentation shall be provided by the department(s) affected by the new assignment. For faculty reassignment, the statement shall be forwarded to the area academic administrator for review and approval. A copy of the statement shall be forwarded to the Office of Human Resources.
3. The review and approval process for academic administrator reassignment is addressed in AR 7250 Educational Administrators.

Guidelines for Determining the Minimum Qualifications for Faculty Positions

1. For Disciplines Requiring the Master's Degree, equivalency is defined as one or more of the following:
