Disciplinary Procedures

Except in cases where immediate discipline pending a hearing is authorized, the following procedures will apply before disciplinary action.

In response to a referral for an alleged violation, the following procedures may be taken.

1. Notice – The College Conduct Administrator will provide the student with written notice of the conduct warranting the discipline along with a copy of this administrative regulation.

The written and email notice will include the following:

At the beginning of each fall term, the Chief Conduct Officer will ensure the Student Disciplinary Committee/External Adjudicator is appointed for the year. The Student Disciplinary Committee shall meet for training and review of the hearing process. In addition, members of the committee shall complete the Sexual Harassment: Policy & Prevention training and other mandated topics as specified in sub-section "iv" below.

The Chief Conduct Officer shall convene the Student Disciplinary Committee/External Adjudicator to hear the charges and recommend disciplinary action. The Student Disciplinary Committee shall be comprised as follows:

i. Two full-time faculty (voting) appointed for one academic year by the president of the Academic Senate. If either or both of these faculty appointees are a direct party to a particular disciplinary case, the Academic Senate president will appoint a substitute for that situation only.

The administrator shall be the chairperson of the Student Disciplinary Committee.

At the discretion of the Chief Conduct Officer, the District may engage an External Adjudicator to serve as a member of the Student Disciplinary Committee or in lieu of the Student Disciplinary Committee whenever, in the exercise of judgment, doing so will best serve the fair and equitable resolution of the misconduct charge. In making the determination to select an External Adjudicator, the Chief Conduct Officer will consider, among other factors, the nature of the allegations, the legal complexity of the case, whether there is any issue of conflict of interest, expertise required, whether the District is in session or on break, and any other relevant factors.

The Chief Conduct Officer will provide all members of the Student Disciplinary Committee and/or External Adjudicator with the Statement of Charges and Notice of Intended Discipline.

All members of the Student Disciplinary Committee and External Adjudicators who are selected to decide cases involving allegations of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking must participate in annual training on non-discrimination; the dynamics of sexual harassment, sexual violence and intimate partner violence; the factors relevant to a determination of credibility; the appropriate manner in which to receive and evaluate sensitive information; the manner of deliberation; evaluation of consent and incapacitation; the application of the preponderance of the evidence standard; sanctioning; and the District's policies and procedures. The training will be coordinated by the Title IX Coordinator in conjunction with district and external partners.

Challenges to the Composition of the Student Disciplinary Committee or External Adjudicator

The complaining party and the student alleged to have violated the Standards of Student Conduct may submit a written request to the Chief Conduct Officer that a member of the Student Disciplinary Committee or External Adjudicator be removed. The request must clearly state the grounds to support a claim of bias, conflict of interest, or an inability to be fair and impartial. This challenge must be raised in writing with the Chief Conduct Officer within five (5) days of receipt of the Notice of Intended Discipline. All objections must be raised prior to the commencement of the hearing in alignment with the deadline noted. Failure to object prior to the hearing will forfeit one's ability to appeal the outcome based on perceived or actual bias.

To hear each appeal, the Superintendent/President or designee will appoint a hearing committee consisting of two (2) students, two (2) faculty members, two (2) classified employees, and one (1) manager. Conduct of the Hearing

NOTE: The hearing must comply with principles of due process, including the right to confront and cross examine witnesses. The following language is legally advised.

All testimony shall be taken under oath; the oath shall be administered by the hearing panel chair. Written statements of witnesses under penalty of perjury shall not be used unless the witness is unavailable to testify. A witness who refuses to be recorded is not unavailable.

Formal rules of evidence shall not apply. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted.

- a. At the beginning of the hearing, the designated college academic management member, or attorney or college representative, shall present the college case, first with an initial summary that includes the evidence to be presented, followed by a detailed presentation of the findings, including presentation of evidence and witnesses. Thereafter The student and/or attorney or representative may cross-examine the college's witnesses, and examine the evidence.

The facts supporting the accusation shall be presented by a college representative who shall be the [designate position].

- b. Next, the student or their/his/her attorney or representative shall present their/his/her case, including any rebuttal evidence or witnesses. The college's representative may cross-examine the student's witnesses, and examine the evidence.
- c. Examination and cross-examination must be limited to issues and matters relevant to the case.
The college representative and the student may call witnesses and introduce oral and written testimony relevant to the issues of the matter.
- d. The designated college management member, attorney or representative may present a closing argument summarizing the college's findings.

In a closed hearing, witnesses shall not be present at the hearing when not testifying, unless all parties and the panel agree to the contrary.

The hearing shall be recorded by the District either by tape, digital, electronic, or stenographic recording. The official recording shall be the only recording made. No witness who refuses to be recorded may be permitted to give testimony. In the event the recording is by tape recording, the hearing panel chair shall, at the beginning of the hearing, ask each person present to identify themselves by name, and thereafter shall ask witnesses to identify themselves by name. The recording shall remain in the custody of the District at all times, unless released to a professional transcribing service. The student may request a copy of the recording.

Conduct of the Disciplinary Hearing

The complainant and respondent to the case shall have the right to be present during the hearing proceedings. The student's parent or guardian may also attend the hearing if the student is a minor. Witnesses may be excluded until it is their turn to testify. All hearing proceedings will be recorded. Hearsay evidence is admissible but no decision may be made based solely on hearsay.

General Evidentiary Rules

The decision shall not be based solely upon hearsay evidence.

Evidence of Student's Pattern of Conduct

Where there is evidence of a pattern of conduct similar in nature to the conduct described in the allegations, either prior to or subsequent to the conduct in question, regardless of whether there has been a finding of responsibility, this information may be deemed relevant and probative to the Student Disciplinary Committee's/External Adjudicator's determination of responsibility and/or assigning of a disciplinary sanction. The determination of relevance will be based on an assessment by the Student Disciplinary Committee/External Adjudicator of whether the previous and/or subsequent incident was substantially similar to the conduct cited in the Statement of Charges and indicates a pattern of behavior and substantial conformity with that pattern by the student. Where there is a prior finding of responsibility for a similar act of sexual misconduct, there is a presumption of relevance and the finding may be considered in making a determination as to responsibility and/or assigning of a sanction.

(8) Rights of the Committee

The basic rights of the committee shall include, but not be limited to the following:

- a. The committee has the right to decide:
 1. Relevance
 2. Materiality

 1. Instruct the witness
 2. Question the witness
 3. Examine the evidence

On failure of the witness to follow directions, the committee may dismiss the witness.

(9) Rights of the Student

- a. The student may, with the permission of the hearing committee, have a translator or qualified interpreter if the student's command of the English language prevents ~~him/her~~ them from being able to fully participate in the proceedings. (What about others DSPS?)
- b. The student may represent themselves or be represented by a person of their choice or have legal counsel or representation, but must notify the College Conduct Administrator ~~Disciplinarian~~ at least two (2) school days prior to the hearing.

B. Right to Inspect

If a written report is placed in the student's disciplinary file, the student shall have the right to inspect and appeal the information as specified in Education Code Section 76232.

(10) Standard of Proof

The District will instruct the Committee that the District bears the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence and that preponderance of the evidence means "more likely to be true than not true."

The burden shall be on the college representative to prove by the preponderance of the evidence that the facts alleged are true.

(11) Decisions

- a. The Student Conduct Appeals Committee shall have the power to accept, reject or modify the decision of the College Conduct Administrator Disciplinarian, but in no case shall impose a more stringent sanction.
- b. Decisions should include:
 1. Findings of facts (what the student did);
 2. Conclusions (with relation to the rules of conduct); and
 3. A decision (disciplinary action affirmed, rejected, or modified)

(12) In the hearing, the committee should decide the following issues:

- a. Does the alleged act constitute a violation of the Student Conduct Code?
- b. Did the student involved commit the act with which he/she is charged?
- c. If the acts are found to have been committed by the student, and are also found to constitute a violation of the Student Conduct Code, were there any "attendant circumstances" shown in mitigation and/or in aggregation?
- d. The facts in each individual case shall be considered when making a determination on the appropriateness of the sanction imposed.

(13) The decision of the Student Conduct Appeals Committee shall be sent to the student ~~and the Superintendent/President~~ in writing within six (6) school days of the hearing. This decision shall include the findings and conclusions of the Student Conduct Appeals Committee.

Within [number] days following the close of the hearing, the hearing panel shall prepare and send to the [CEO] a written decision. The decision shall include specific factual findings regarding the accusation, and shall include specific conclusions regarding whether any specific section of the Standards of Student Conduct were violated. The decision shall also include a specific recommendation regarding the disciplinary action to be imposed, if any. The decision shall be based only on the record of the hearing, and not on matter outside of that record. The record consists of the original accusation, the written response, if any, of the student, and the oral and written evidence produced at the hearing.

Decision of the Student Disciplinary Committee or External Adjudicator

The members of the Student Disciplinary Committee shall consider and reach a decision by a simple majority vote on each of the charges against the student. If the matter is being heard solely by the External Adjudicator, the External Adjudicator shall render the decision. The Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator shall apply the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof in determining whether the student is found to be in violation of the Standards of Student Conduct

The Decision

The decision of the Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator shall be one of four options: (1) recommend expulsion; (2) impose a suspension; (3) impose a lesser disciplinary action; (4) find that the charges against the student alleged to have violated the Standards of Student Conduct have not been proven and no discipline should be imposed.

Within ten (10) days after conducting the hearing, the Student Disciplinary Committee or External Adjudicator shall render a decision, prepare written findings and conclusions, and serve them upon the student alleged to have violated the Standards of Student Conduct with a copy sent to the Chief Conduct Officer. With the exception of a recommendation of expulsion, the Chief Conduct Officer will implement the decision of the Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator. If the Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator recommends that the student be expelled, the Chief Conduct Officer shall forward the findings to the Superintendent/President for further action pursuant to Section F.

The student shall meet with the College Conduct Administrator prior to the scheduling of a readmission hearing. Said petition shall be completely separate, apart and in addition to any procedures required by the Admissions and Records Office.
- (2) Within ten (10) school days of the petition for readmission submittal, the Student Conduct Appeals Committee panel shall review the petition for readmission to determine whether the student has made reasonable adjustment in the behavior or that the student has received the appropriate guidance, counseling and/or attention necessary to avoid the behavior that brought about the suspension. The Student Conduct Appeals Committee panel may delegate the decision to the College Conduct Administrator Disciplinarian or may conduct its review by email or teleconference.

(3) The Student Conduct Appeals Committee panel may request a hearing with the student to ascertain whether the student's claim regarding the behavioral adjustment is accurate. The student shall be notified of the date, time and place of the hearing within ten (10) school days of the petition for readmission submittal. The student may present further evidence or documentation in support of their/his/her claim. The College Conduct Administrator Disciplinarian shall notify the student within sixfive (65) school days of the committee's decision. The Student Conduct Appeals Committee panel may:

The Superintendent/President has the sole authority to:

- a. Adopt the recommended discipline of the Student Conduct Appeals Committee;
- b. Modify or reduce the discipline recommended by the Student Conduct Appeals Committee; or

- c. Reverse the discipline recommended by the Student Conduct Appeals Committee.

The decision of the Superintendent/President shall be communicated to the student in writing, and a copy sent to the College Conduct Administrator ~~Disciplinarian~~. In cases of suspension and/or lesser sanction, the decision of the Superintendent/President is final.

Long-term suspension – Within [number of days] following receipt of the hearing panel's recommended decision, the [CEO] shall render a final written decision. The [CEO] may accept, modify, or reject the findings, decisions and recommendations of the hearing panel. If the [CEO] modifies, or rejects the hearing panel's decision, the [CEO] shall review the record of the hearing, and shall prepare a new written decision which contains specific factual findings and conclusions. - f. Whenever the student expelled is a dependent minor for federal income tax purposes, the parent or guardian shall be notified in writing by the College Conduct Administrator ~~Disciplinarian~~ within five (5) school days.

Expulsion – Within [number of days] following receipt of the hearing panel's recommended decision, the [CEO] shall render a written recommended decision to the Board of Trustees. The [CEO] may accept, modify, or reject the findings, decisions and recommendations of the hearing panel. If the [CEO] modifies, or rejects the hearing panel's decision, he/she/they shall review the record of the hearing, and shall prepare a new written decision which contains specific factual findings and conclusions. The [CEO's] decision shall be forwarded to the Board of Trustees.

The student shall be notified in writing, by registered or certified mail to the address last on file with the District, or by personal service, at least three days prior to the meeting, of the date, time, and place of the Board's meeting.

Even if a student has requested that the Board consider an expulsion recommendation in a public meeting, the Board will hold any discussion that might be in conflict with the right to privacy of any student other than the student requesting the public meeting in closed session.

The Board may accept, modify, or reject the findings, decisions and recommendations of the [CEO] or the hearing panel. If the Board modifies or rejects the decision, the Board shall review the record of the hearing, and shall prepare a new written decision, which contains specific factual findings and conclusions. The decision of the Board shall be final.

The final action of the Board on the expulsion shall be taken at a public meeting, and the result of the action shall be a public record of the District.

Rules Pertaining To Expulsion Recommendations

a) Review by the Superintendent/President Within five (5) days of receiving the findings and conclusions of the Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator recommending that the student be expelled, the Superintendent/President shall review the findings and conclusions, and shall prepare a discipline decision (1) recommending that the student be expelled; (2) imposing some lesser discipline; (3) deciding that no discipline should be imposed; or (4) remanding the matter back to the Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator for a further hearing to more fully develop the factual record or to take any other actions directed by the Superintendent/President. This deadline may be extended under extenuating circumstances as determined by the Board President on their own initiative and in their sole discretion. Absent extenuating circumstances, requests to reschedule submitted by the complaining party or student alleged to have violated the Standards of Student Conduct must be submitted to the Board with an explanation for the request at least five (5) days prior to the hearing.

If a written request by the student is submitted, the meeting shall be public except that any discussion at the meeting that might be in conflict with the right to privacy of any student other than the student requesting the public meeting shall be in closed session.

The student, student's counsel, Chief Conduct Officer, chairperson of the Student Disciplinary Committee or the External Adjudicator if the matter was decided solely by the External Adjudicator, Superintendent/President, and the District's legal counsel may attend the hearing before the Board of Trustees. Whether the hearing is conducted before the public or in closed session, the Board shall confer in private as necessary with its designated legal counsel and Superintendent/President to consider the evidence presented and reach its determination in the matter. When these deliberations are completed, the final action of the Board shall be taken at a public meeting and the result of that action shall be made a part of the public record of the District (Education Code Section 72122).

iii) The Decision of the Board of Trustees

The student shall be expelled if a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees present at the hearing vote to expel the student. If a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees do not vote to expel the student, they may, by majority vote of the members:

1. impose some lesser discipline;
 2. decide that no discipline should be imposed; or

- iv) If the majority of the members of the Board of Trustees present at the hearing cannot reach a decision to expel the student or to take some other action, the matter shall be remanded to the Superintendent/President who shall suspend or impose some lesser discipline on the student.

The student shall be notified in writing, by registered or certified mail to the address last on file with the District, or by personal service, at least three days prior to the meeting, of the date, time, and place of the Board's meeting.

The student may, within 48 hours after receipt of the notice, request that the hearing be held as a public meeting.

position] from recommending further disciplinary procedures in accordance with these procedures based on the facts which led to the removal.

Withdrawal of Consent to Remain on Campus: The [designate position] may notify any person for whom there is a reasonable belief that the person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of the campus that consent to remain on campus has been withdrawn. If the person is on campus at the time, he/she/they must promptly leave or be escorted off campus. If consent is withdrawn by the [designate position] a written report must be promptly made to the [CEO].

The person from whom consent has been withdrawn may submit a written request for a hearing on the withdrawal within the period of the withdrawal. The request shall be granted not later than seven days from the date of receipt of the request. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this procedure relating to interim suspensions.

In no case shall consent be withdrawn for longer than [number of days, no more than 14 days] from the date upon which consent was initially withdrawn.

Any person as to whom consent to remain on campus has been withdrawn who knowingly reenters the campus during the period in which consent has been withdrawn, except to come for a meeting or hearing, is subject to arrest (Penal Code Section 626.4).

Time Limits: Any times specified in these procedures may be shortened or lengthened if there is mutual concurrence by all parties.

The respective governing boards of the California Community Colleges, the California State University, or the University of California shall adopt appropriate procedures and designate appropriate persons to take disciplinary action against any student, member of the faculty, member of the support staff, or member of the administration of the community college, state college, or state university who, after a prompt hearing by a campus body, has been found to have willfully disrupted the orderly operation of the campus. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit, where an immediate suspension is required in order to protect lives or property and to ensure the maintenance of order, interim suspension pending a hearing; provided that a reasonable opportunity be afforded the suspended person for a hearing within 10 days. The disciplinary action may include, but need not be limited to, suspension, dismissal, or expulsion. Sections 89538 to 89540, inclusive, shall be applicable to any state university or college employee dismissed pursuant to this section. SEE THIS

- (a) Consistent with requirements of due process of law, with this article, and with the rules of student conduct adopted by the governing board under Section 66300, the governing board, the president of a community college or the president's designee, or an instructor shall suspend a student for good cause. In addition, the governing board is authorized to expel a student for good cause when other means of correction fail to bring about proper conduct, or when the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others. The suspension or expulsion of a student shall be accompanied by a hearing conducted pursuant to the requirements of Section 66017.
- (b) (1) Notwithstanding any other law, if an order requested by a community college district to protect a campus of a community college district or any person regularly present on a campus of that district is issued upon a finding of good cause by a court against a student of that community college district, and the order prevents that student from attending classes and maintaining his or her academic standing, the community college district may require the student to apply for reinstatement after the expiration of that order. If the district requires the student to apply for reinstatement, it shall do so before the expiration of the protective order. If a student applies for reinstatement under this paragraph, a review with respect to the application shall be conducted. This review, at a minimum, shall include consideration of all of the following issues:

- (A) Deny reinstatement.

(B) Permit reinstatement.

(C) Permit conditional reinstatement and specify the conditions under which reinstatement will be permitted.

76033.

As used in this article, “good cause” includes, but is not limited to, the following offenses, occurring while enrolled as a student:

- (f) Persistent, serious misconduct where other means of correction have failed to bring about proper conduct.

 - (1) Intentional touching of another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent or other intentional sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent.
 - (2) Coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force a person to touch another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent.

 - (2) Recording images, including video or photograph, or audio of another person’s sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness without that person’s consent.
 - (3) Distributing images, including video or photograph, or audio of another person’s sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness, if the individual distributing the images or audio knows or should have known that the person depicted in the images or audio did not consent to the disclosure and objected to the disclosure.
 - (4) Viewing another person’s sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person’s consent, and for the purpose of arousing or gratifying sexual desire.

(a) Except in response to conduct specified in subdivisions (g) and (h) of Section 76033, no student shall be removed, suspended, or expelled unless the conduct for which the student is disciplined is related to college activity or college attendance.

(b) This section is not intended to limit provisions of federal law, or limit the ability of community college districts to take appropriate action under federal law.

(a) If the governing board of a community college district receives an application for admission from an individual who has been expelled from another district pursuant to this article within the preceding five years, or who is undergoing expulsion procedures in another district, for any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b), before taking action to deny enrollment or permit conditional enrollment as authorized by subdivision (e), the governing board or delegate pursuant to subdivision (f) shall hold a hearing, conducted in accordance with this section and the applicable rules and regulations governing enrollment hearings authorized by this section and adopted in accordance with Section 66300, to determine whether that individual poses a continuing danger to the physical safety of the students and employees of the district.

(b) For purposes of this section, "offense" means one of the following:

(1) Committed or attempted to commit murder.

(2) Caused, attempted to cause serious, or threatened to cause physical injury to another person, including assault or battery as defined in Section 240 or 242 of the Penal Code, except in self-defense.

(4) Committed or attempted to commit kidnapping, or seized, confined, inveigled, enticed, decoyed, abducted, concealed, kidnapped, or carried away another person by any means with the intent to hold or detain that person for ransom or reward.

(5) Committed or attempted to commit robbery or extortion.

(6) Committed stalking as defined in Section 646.9 of the Penal Code.

(7) Unlawfully possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished a firearm, knife, explosive, or other dangerous object.

(c) A community college district may request information, and respond to a request for information, from another community college district to determine whether an applicant continues to pose a danger to the physical safety of others.

(d) A community college district may require a student seeking admission who has been previously expelled from a community college in the state for any of the actions listed in subdivision (b) to inform the district of his or her prior expulsion. Failure to do so may be considered by the district in determining whether to grant admission, and a written record of the fact may be maintained by the district with the applicant's file.

(e) The governing board of a community college district, upon making a determination pursuant to subdivision (a), shall take into consideration evidence of subsequent offenses and rehabilitative efforts since the offense and may take any of the following actions:

- (1) Deny enrollment.
- (2) Permit enrollment.
- (3) Permit conditional enrollment.

(f) The governing board of a community college district may delegate any authority under this section to the superintendent or president of a community college district, or his or her designee, or a threat assessment crisis response team pursuant to rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 66300.

(g) Before the governing board of a community college district takes action as authorized under this section, the governing board shall establish a formal appeals process for students denied enrollment to appeal the decision to the governing board. A student who is denied enrollment under subdivision (e) may appeal the decision to deny enrollment to the governing board of the community college district.

(h) This section shall not be construed to impose any duty on a community college district to review applicants for admission or review previously enrolled students, whether returning or continuing, or to conduct a hearing in response to the receipt of any information regarding a potential, former, or existing student.

(i) In accordance with Sections 815.2 and 820.2 of the Government Code, a community college district, a member of the governing board of a community college district, an officer or employee of a community college district, including a superintendent of a community college district, a president of a community college district, and the designee of a president or a superintendent, shall not be liable for an injury resulting from an exercise of discretion pursuant to this section, including, but not limited to, an exercise of discretion not to conduct a hearing when a hearing is not required.

(j) This section shall not apply to the admission of students for whom a community college district has discretion to admit pursuant to Section 76000.

(a) When grades are given for any course of instruction taught in a community college district, the grade given to each student shall be the grade determined by the instructor of the course and the determination of the student's grade by the instructor, in the absence of mistake, fraud, bad faith, or incompetency, shall be final.

(b) No grade of a student participating in a physical education class, however, may be adversely affected due to the fact that the student does not wear standardized physical education apparel where the failure to wear such apparel arises from circumstances beyond the control of the student.

The governing board of a community college district shall adopt rules and regulations relating to the exercise of free expression by students upon the premises of each community college maintained by the district, which shall include reasonable provisions for the time, place, and manner of conducting such activities.

Such rules and regulations shall not prohibit the right of students to exercise free expression including, but not limited to, the use of bulletin boards, the distribution of printed materials or petitions, and the wearing of buttons, badges, or other insignia, except that expression which is obscene, libelous or slanderous according to current legal standards, or which so incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of unlawful acts on community college premises, or the violation of lawful community college regulations, or the substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the community college, shall be prohibited.

The governing board of each community college district shall require each community college maintained by the district, in administering any test or examination, to permit any student who is eligible to undergo the test or examination to do so, without penalty, at a time when that activity would not violate the student's religious creed. This requirement shall not apply in the event that administering the test or examination at an alternate time would impose an undue hardship which could not reasonably have been avoided. In any court proceeding in which the existence of an undue hardship which could not reasonably have been avoided is an issue, the burden of proof shall be upon the institution.

California Code, Penal Code - PEN § 626.4

Current as of January 01, 2023

(a) The chief administrative officer of a campus or other facility of a community college, a state university, the university, an independent institution of higher education, or a school, or an officer or employee designated by the chief administrative officer to maintain order on such campus or facility, may notify a person that consent to remain on the campus or other facility under the control of the chief administrative officer has been withdrawn whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that such person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of such campus or facility.

(b) Whenever consent is withdrawn by any authorized officer or employee, other than the chief administrative officer, the officer or employee shall as soon as is reasonably possible submit a written report to the chief administrative officer or designee. The report shall contain all of the following:

(2) A statement of the facts giving rise to the withdrawal of consent.

If the chief administrative officer or, in the chief administrative officer's absence, a person designated by the chief administrative officer for this purpose, upon reviewing the report, finds that there was reasonable cause to believe that such person has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of the campus or facility, the chief administrative officer may enter written confirmation upon the report of the action taken by the officer or employee. If the chief administrative officer or, in the chief administrative officer's absence, the person designated by the chief administrative officer, does not confirm the action of the officer or employee within 24 hours after the time that consent was withdrawn, the action of the officer or employee shall be deemed void and of no force or effect, except that any arrest made during such period shall not for this reason be deemed not to have been made for probable cause.

(c) Consent shall be reinstated by the chief administrative officer whenever they have reason to believe that the presence of the person from whom consent was withdrawn will not constitute a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the campus or facility. In no case shall consent be withdrawn for longer than 14 days from the date upon which consent was initially withdrawn. The person from whom consent has been withdrawn may submit a written request for a hearing on the withdrawal within the two-week period. The written request shall state the address to which notice of hearing is to be sent. The chief administrative officer shall grant such a hearing not later than seven days from the date of receipt of the request and shall immediately mail a written notice of the time, place, and date of such hearing to such person.

subdivision (a); who has not had such consent reinstated; and who willfully and knowingly enters or remains upon such campus or facility during the period for which consent has been withdrawn is guilty of a misdemeanor. This subdivision does not apply to any person who enters or remains on such campus or facility for the sole purpose of applying to the chief administrative officer for the reinstatement of consent or for the sole purpose of attending a hearing on the withdrawal.

(e) This section shall not affect the power of the duly constituted authorities of a community college, a state university, an independent institution of higher education, the university, or a school, to suspend, dismiss, or expel any student or employee at the college, state university, university, an independent institution of higher education, or school.

If that person fails to do so or if the person willfully and knowingly reenters upon the campus or facility within seven days after being directed to leave, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be utilized to impinge upon the lawful exercise of constitutionally protected rights of freedom of speech or assembly.
