V. Action Items

VI. Information Items

The Center, which used to be called Center for teaching Excellence, will now be called The Epicenter and serve all faculty groups. The website is still a work in progress.

b. Student Equity Plan 2.0 (V. Arrizon)

The Institutional Effectiveness Committee has provided feedback to VP/Dean Maria Munoz, and she has accepted invitation to visit committee.

VII. Discussion Items

a. Senate Goals and Objectives (J. London)

J. London shares three options for the goal related to achieving a 75/25 full-time to part-time ratio, and senators discuss the options.

Senators discuss whether the senate should have an enrollment and retention goal. Senators discuss the need for faculty to at the table as the college formulates its enrollment and retention strategies but question whether these issues fall under the senate's purview. Senators also think faculty should have a say in the future of online education at the college.

VIII. President's Report

a. Priority Hiring List

J. London hopes for at least 21 hires—more if possible.

The ranking committee for this year hasn't been finalized yet. J. London will choose the committee members, which will include some members from last year's committee, along with new members and at least one department chair. The committee will focus on equity again this year.

b. Accreditation

The Institutional Self-Evaluation Report (ISER) has been submitted to the Board of Trustees for approval, which will hopefully occur at their November meeting. J. London notes the accreditation officer from the ACCJC said we were working very well together. The ISER will be turned in by December 13. There will be a virtual visit in spring and an in-person visit in fall.

c. Fall Plenary Resolution

J. London invites others to attend Fall Plenary.
